

Would you like a career as a Teaching Assistant?

Want to work with young people with special educational needs?

Bromley Schools are looking for dynamic individuals interested in making a difference to work as Teaching Assistants across all curriculum areas.

Delivered by SEND teachers from across the borough, our Five - week course will:

- Introduce you to working with pupils with Autism, ADHD, and mental health needs
- Familiarise you with the importance of and protocols for safeguarding
- Grant you insight into the school environment with visits to local primary, secondary and specialist schools
- Develop your personal development skills
- Improve your CV, job application and interview skills
- Provide you with two Level 1 accredited qualifications upon completion: Employability Skills and Preparing to Work in Schools

Schools will consider flexible contracts as part of the scheme

Interested?

Sign up for the course and upon completion, you will get a guaranteed interview. Our next course starts on 20th January 2025.
